

Arden is pleased to announce the launch of Arden Wealth Management Limited, its new wholly owned and FCA approved wealth management subsidiary (trading as Arden Wealth) and the creation of a new wealth management division within the Arden group.

Arden Wealth has been established to deliver bespoke discretionary portfolio management services to private individuals who wish to receive a truly personal, tailored service. Its range of services include financial planning and so will provide access to ISAs and IHT portfolios and advice on pensions, including SIPPs and protection.

Henry Algeo, a former director of Brewin Dolphin plc, has been appointed as Head of the Wealth Management Division to develop Arden Wealth.
